CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Formed in 1989, Leveda Inc is a not-for-profit organisation that has grown steadily, providing a diverse range of long term community-based accommodation and support services for people with a disability and complex support needs, in the north and north eastern suburbs of Adelaide. Highly focused on client outcomes, Leveda is known for its values which foster an environment of caring, kindness and fun, and enable each individual's ability to learn and develop with their family's involvement.

The Board of Management seeks a new Chief Executive Officer to take Leveda into a new phase, based on its sound current position. Leading the executive management team and reporting to the Board, you will drive the strategic direction and further enhance the organisation's success and position, whilst continuing to build strong and productive relationships and set the future corporate style and ethos.

This pivotal role will be responsible for corporate governance, strategic planning, responding to the market challenges and opportunities, and building on sustainable business innovation. The appointee will provide contemporary leadership whilst effectively managing the day-to-day operations including service programs, raising the profile through targeted marketing, asset and property management, human resource management, commercial, investment and financial activities.

This position will suit an accomplished senior manager with a high degree of creativity, an entrepreneurial flair and a commitment to Leveda's values. The successful candidate will be a strategic thinker with strong commercial acumen, proven leadership, communication and negotiation skills. Experience advising and working at Board and executive level is essential.

Proud of its origins and history, this is a wonderful opportunity to take this well positioned, values-driven disability organisation and create its future!
